CHAPTER UPDATE

Fall Rush, Alumni Panel and More!

Fall Rush Update

This semester, Chi Chapter decided to undertake in the first fall rush process in four years. Fall rush week began with a cookout hosted by the chapter at the lodge, followed by a Buffalo Wild Wings wing eating contest, and finished with the Byron J. Horn Alumni Panel. Throughout the week the chapter connected and forged relationships with many upperclassmen. The chapter extended bids to Gene Bailey (class of 2019) and Sebastián Chávez Erazo (Class of 2018). Both new members are strong students who will provide depth and leadership to their classes within Chi Chapter. Gene is a member of the Archon Society, Kenyon College Building and Ground's Committee, and Kenyon Democrats. Sebastián is a member of Unity House, Black Student Union, and the Archon Society, as well as the President of ADELANTE, Kenyon College's Latinx Student Association.

Byron Horn Alumni Panel

Chi Chapter recently held the annual Byron J. Horn Alumni Panel on Saturday September 24. The event started at 11 a.m., where we began with short introductions of each guest speaking, while having some coffee and donuts.

Young alumni in attendance consisted of Ben Huizinga, Jake Thorn, Michael Marting, Tim Barry, Peter Corrigan, Sam Althans, and later appearances from Michael Michnowicz, and Manjul Bhusal Sharma. Major topics discussed included post-graduate planning, networking, job searches, what to expect after college, and tips on how to succeed in a professional environment. There was a Q&A portion after the main conference portion, which included discussion on graduate school, dealing with family/friend pressure, accepting and learning from failure, and other short conversation topics. The brothers and fall rushees in attendance appreciated the young alumni perspective of the changing times in the job market and post college experience, proving relevant advice and information beneficial to those of us graduating within the next several years. Afterwards, we held a cookout on the back lodge patio, where we had hamburgers and hotdogs, while continuing to discuss various topics and enjoying hanging out with recently graduated brothers. While the event officially came to a close after the cookout, the chapter all went down to watch brothers Saxon Justice, Szabi Simo, Rob Mallen-West, and the rest of the Kenyon football team defeat Allegheny College 31-7.

Abhijeet Ball and I attended Karnea 2016 in Orlando, FL. With the quorum of delegates being met at the first business meeting, former President Jody B.

Danneman called the Karnea to order. Most proposals brought to the attention of the Karnea, ranging from the rephrasing of a section of a bylaw to minute details, were approved. While it was very tedious, it was really cool to watch the fate of proposals.

Another highlight of the event was during Ritual on Saturday morning. We were told that at most Karneas, the Ritual is really just for show and it gives an opportunity for those present to see a near perfect execution of Ritual. The 2016 Karnea provided a rare and lucky opportunity to watch a new brother be initiated into our organization.

“The Relationships You Build Will Reward You Beyond Measure”

Tim Stautberg '85 may have originally joined Chi Chapter due to the diverse group of generally good guys, but bonds with these gentlemen were not all he walked away with. Tim also gained leadership experience and the love of his life through his time in the chapter, which led him to a successful life both professionally and personally.

Q: Why did you join DTD in the first place?

A: I joined the Deltas because a number of my closer friends were being rushed by them and the active members were a diverse group and generally good guys.

Q: What's your favorite memory from your time in the chapter?

A: I have so many that singling out one is tough to do. Many of them involve parties at the Delt Lodge with Katherine Thornwell Stautberg '87, to whom I've been married since 1989.

Q: Do you still keep in touch with any of your brothers?

A: Yes, I get back to Kenyon for reunions and Homecoming and see a lot of brothers on those occasions. Facebook also helps stay connected. In fact, a post on Facebook this summer alerted me that classmate and Delt brother Bill Taylor '85 and his wife Jennifer Luce Taylor '85 were in Vancouver. My wife and I were close by and we met them for dinner. More recently, Katherine and I stayed with Rennie Worsfold '86 and his wife, Willa Devoti Worsfold '88, during a trip to Boston.

Q: Tell us about the company you led.

A: In April of 2015, the newspaper division of The E.W. Scripps Company was spun off and merged with the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, creating a new public company called Journal Media Group. After 25 years with Scripps, I left to become President and CEO of this new company, which was headquartered in Milwaukee. Journal Media Group operated daily newspapers in 14 markets around the country and within a few months we had two parties interested in acquiring our company. In October we announced a deal to be acquired by publicly traded newspaper publisher, Gannett, and completed the sale in April of this year. I left the company after the sale and am currently exploring other opportunities.

Q: How did your time in DTD help to prepare you for that role?

A: I was fortunate to have several leadership roles as a Delt, including President, and learned early on the importance of listening and building consensus.

Q: What have you been up to since graduation?

A: I worked for Chicago-based Harris Trust and Savings Bank for five years and completed an MBA while working full time. I joined The E.W. Scripps Company in 1990 and held a variety of roles with them during the course of a 25-year career, including Chief Financial Officer and SVP. My wife, Katherine, and I have been living in Cincinnati since 1999 and we have four sons. We're on the back nine, with only one still at home.

Q: What would you say is your biggest accomplishment?

A: Finding the love of my life at Kenyon College and convincing her to marry me.

Q: What advice would you give to future generations of DTD members?

A: Get involved in the leadership of Chi Chapter and find ways to serve others while at Kenyon. The relationships that you build during your four years at Kenyon will reward you beyond measure and last for a lifetime.

IN MEMORY

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of some brothers A. Rodney Boren '38, Ken Klug '65, Robert Clark '56 and John Beese, Jr. '58. Though they are no longer with us, they will remain forever in the hearts and memories of their friends and family.

A. Rodney Boren '38

A lifelong resident of Dayton, OH, and also formerly of New York City and Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, A. Rodney Boren passed away on January 12, at the Otterbein Community in Monclova Ohio, five months prior to his 100th birthday. Born in Dayton on June 14, 1916, to Herbert S. and Katharine Miller Boren, he spent his early years in Dayton and Middletown. He attended Oakwood High School where, under the tutelage of Ed Cook, he was the quarterback of the league champion varsity football team and undefeated miler on the track team and set the record for the mile that wasn't broken until the mid-fifties.

Ken Klug '65, a resident of Carlsbad, CA, passed on December 13, 2015. He was 72.

A Cleveland native, Ken majored in chemistry at Kenyon and played varsity baseball, basketball and football, participated in student government with a seat on Campus Senate and joined Delta Tau Delta. He was captain of the baseball team, co-captain of the basketball and football teams and President of the Interfraternity Council and of his fraternity.

Robert S. Clark '56 passed peacefully on March 10, 2016 from complications of Parkinson's disease. Born in Schenectady, NY on April 18, 1934, he was the eldest son of Margaret Daggett Clark and Robert Harold Clark. Bob graduated Solon High School in 1952 and Kenyon College, Cum Laude and with High Honors in English, in 1956.

John Beese, Jr. '58 passed away unexpectedly on August 23, 2015. He took great pride in the life he lived. He was born and died at the family home, Merestead Farms. John was preceded in death by his parents, John and Fredda Beese and his brothers Bill and Henry. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Lee; and his four sons, John Ivor (Jane) Beese, John F. (Heather) Beese III, Andrew (Melanie) and Matt (Laura) Beese; and his grandchildren, Jonathon, Jacob, Emily, Lucy, Slade, John (Jack) IV, Ella, Evan and Taylor.

KARNEA

wife at the hotel restaurant, which overlooks Lake Windsong. However, due to some technical difficulties, the dinner ended up taking place during lunchtime. It was great to finally meet this Chi legend after hearing about his dedication and service to our chapter.

With the announcement of the new Arch Chapter, Jim Garboden has been selected to serve as International President of our organization. During his speech, President Garboden challenged the fraternity to raise $1,000,000 or more in fundraisers for JDRE, a goal that former President Danneman had set during the 2014 Karnea in New Orleans. Additionally, he has promised to focus on the physical and mental well-being of all undergraduate brothers by promising to brainstorm an initiative. In essence, he said that all brothers in the fraternity, especially the undergraduates, would be receiving a big hug from him.

Other events included spending Friday evening at Magic Kingdom at Disney World and there were many leadership meetings that were hosted by alums who were Chapter Consultants or Chapter Advisors.
